

Fourth Annual Loving The Skin I'm In Creative Expression Contest

Zoe's Dolls is a nonprofit company. Zoe's Dolls was established in October of 2012 and is the vision of now 11-year old Zoe Terry. Zoe's Dolls, an organization that focuses on girl empowerment and combats bullying through a variety of programs and events that incorporate fitness, self-expression and community spirit.

Zoe's Dolls believes that the image of brown girls is important and that their image should be celebrated and herald. It is that belief that led to the creation of Zoe's Dolls Annual Loving The Skin I'm In Creative Expression Contest!

We want to know why being a brown girl is important to you and why you love the skin you are in. Here is your opportunity to have your voice heard! Let the world know that your image matters and that your image is beautiful!

Girls between the ages of 6 and 18 may submit in either the written or short film category. All submissions must be received by April 30, 2018, by 11:59 PM. The first place winner will receive a $100 cash award, second place will receive a $75 cash award and the third place winner will receive a $50 cash award. Winners will be honored at a formal banquet in May.
